

Joe Longenbaker

Joined Board 2013

Joe Longenbaker is a Building Inspector with the City of Columbus. His career has included being a home builder, a product manager for a software company and a corporate accountant.

Joe has been involved with the Team since its founding, when his son Bryan participated in its very first race (and in every race ever since). He's also served as Team president.

He lives in Delaware County with his wife Dani, sister Nancy and Bryan. He enjoys golfing and coaches the Yankees baseball team in The Miracle League.