

Paul Richard

Joined Board 2015

Paul Richard worked on the staff of the non-profit Good Works for 22 years. He leads yoga classes and teaches children's Sunday School for 5th and 6th graders at Christ Community Wesleyan Church near Athens, Ohio.

Paul leads the Team's Athens chapter and enjoys seeing people with disabilities and those without coming together for a great time. He views it as a holistic experience for everyone involved, and is grateful to lead Team Athens which he describes as a "beautiful experience."

Paul lives in Athens with his wife Lyn. They have two children, a son Austin and daughter Kierra, along with a grandson Atticus. In addition to running and teaching yoga, Paul plays guitar and enjoys writing and biking.
